4.1. Identification of Potential Rotated Party Transactions

- a) The Company shall at all times maintain a database of Company's Related Parties containing the names of individuals and Companies in accordance with this Policy, along with their personal/company details including any revisions therein.
- b) The Related Party List shall be updated whenever necessary and shall be reviewed quarterly by the Audit Committee.
- c) The Company Secretary shall collate the information, coordinate and send the Related Party List to the concerned employees viz Managing Director, Chief Executive Office, Whole Time Director, Chief Financial Officer, Functional Heads, Branch Heads, the Finance & Accounts Department and who he/she believes might be in the position to know the possible conduct of RPTs.
- d) Functional departmental heads shall submit to the Company Secretary the details of proposed transaction with details/draft contract/ draft agreement or other supporting documents justifying that the transactions are on arms' length basis in an ordinary course of business at prevailing market rate.
- e) Based on this note, the Company Secretary shall appropriately take up for necessary prior approvals from the Audit Committee at its next meeting and convey back the decision to the originator.
- f) Each director/Key Managerial Personnel shall be responsible for providing written notice to the Company Secretary of any potential RPT involving him or her or his or her Relatives, including any additional information about the transaction that the Company Secretary may reasonably request. The Company Secretary shall, in consultation with other members of senior management and with the Audit Committee, as appropriate, determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a RPT requiring compliance with this Policy.

- g) Where any director/ Key Managerial Personnel, who is not so concerned or interested at the time of entering into such contract or arrangement, he or she shall, if he becomes concerned or interested after the contract or arrangement is entered into, disclose his concern or interest forthwith when he or she becomes concerned or interested or at the first meeting of Board held after he or she becomes so concerned or interested.
- h) A contract or arrangement entered into by the Company without disclosure or with participation by a Director / Key Managerial Personnel who is concerned or interested in any way, directly or indirectly, in the contract or arrangement, shall be voidable at the option of the Company.
- i) The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential RPT well in advance so that the Company Secretary has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction and other matter incidental thereto and to refer it to the appropriate approval authority. Ratification of RPT after its commencement or even its completion may be appropriate in some circumstances.

4.2. Standards for Review

A RPT reviewed under this Policy will be considered approved or ratified if it is authorised by the Audit Committee or the Board or the shareholders in the General Meeting, as applicable, in accordance with the standards set forth in this Policy after full disclosure of the Related Party's interests in the transaction. As appropriate for the circumstances, the Audit Committee or Board, as applicable, shall review and consider:

- a) the Related Party's interest in the RPT;
- b) the amount involved in the RPT;
- c) whether the RPT was undertaken in the ordinary course of business of the Company;
- d) whether the transaction with the Related Party is proposed to be, or was, entered on an arms' length basis;
- e) the purpose of and the potential benefits to the Company from the RPT;
- f) Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter in to the RPT and the nature of alternative transaction, if any;
- g) Whether the RPT includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the RPT.
- h) Whether the Company was notified about the RPT before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification would be detrimental to the Company;

- i) Required public disclosure, if any; and
- j) Any other information regarding the RPT or the Related Party in the context of the proposed transaction that would be material to the Audit Committee / Board/shareholders, as applicable in light of the circumstances of the particular Transaction.

The Audit Committee/Board will review all relevant information available to it about the RPT. The Audit Committee or the Board, as applicable, may approve or ratify or recommend to the shareholders, the RPT only if the Audit Committee and/ or the Board, as applicable, determine that, under all of the circumstances, the transaction is fair and reasonable to the Company.
